
INTERNAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

ELFUERTE
MARBELLA

ADMISSION CONDITIONS

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS:

Persons entering this hotel establishment are required to comply with these Regulations, insofar as they do not violate Law 13/2011, of 23 December, on Tourism, Decree Law 13/2020, of 18 May, on hotel establishments, and other applicable Regulations and Precepts.

2. ACCESS, ADMISSION TO AND STAYING AT THE ESTABLISHMENT:

This hotel establishment is for public use and free access, with no restrictions other than those imposed by law and these regulations.

A person's admission and stay at this establishment may only be refused for the following reasons:

- a) Insufficient accommodation capacity or facilities
- b) Failure to comply with the admission requirements outlined in these regulations.
- c) Due to engaging in conduct that may endanger or annoy other persons or users, or that hinders the normal progression of the activity.

When the aforementioned circumstances occur or if a person violates one or more of the restrictions listed above, the establishment's management staff may ask them to leave, subject to payment of any outstanding bills for services and consumption, if applicable. According to Article 36 of the Tourism Law and Article 25 of the Hotel Organisation Decree Law, the security forces will be called upon if necessary.

It is hereby expressly stated that access to the hotel's facilities, services, and accommodations will not be denied or restricted on the basis of gender, disability (with or without a guide dog), religion, opinion, or any other personal or social circumstance.

3. ENTRY REGISTER AND ADMISSION DOCUMENT:

Any person or persons wishing to use the accommodation units, communal facilities, and, as applicable, supplementary services detailed in these Regulations must present their identification documents for admission and registration in the establishment's records.

Once the person or persons have registered, this establishment will create an admission document that includes the name, category, and registration number of the establishment, the number or identification of the assigned accommodation, the number of people who will be occupying it, the dates of arrival and departure and the meals they have booked, as well as the cost of the accommodation, if contracted directly. This admission document, completed in duplicate, must be signed by the interested party to formalise their admission, after they have been made aware of the existence of these Regulations and their rights and obligations. The original shall be given to the user, while the copy shall remain in the establishment's possession.

The supplementary services offered and provided by this establishment or by other persons or entities are outlined in the digital directory accessible via QR code, and payment for them shall be made in accordance with the agreed terms.

RULES OF COHABITATION AND OPERATION

4. USER RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

Users are free to enter and remain in the establishment, subject to the restrictions outlined in paragraph 2 and these regulations.

Before contracting the offered services, users have the right to receive accurate and complete information. During the course of these services, they have the right to the safety, privacy and tranquillity corresponding to the agreed conditions, and to be provided with an invoice, with the regulatory formalities and the directly contracted services. If they wish to make a complaint, they have the right to be given complaint forms.

Users are required to observe the rules contained in these regulations, which they expressly accept by signing the admission document, as well as those issued by the Management regarding safety, cohabitation and hygiene, in order to make proper use of the establishment. In accordance with article 21 of the Decree Law, users must prove their status by presenting the admission document when requested. They must also respect the establishment's facilities and equipment, and pay for contracted services upon presentation of the invoice or according to the agreed terms. Submitting a complaint does not release guests from the obligation to pay for the contracted services.

5. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE HOTEL COMPANY

This establishment may request the assistance of police officers to evict from its premises users who do not comply with these regulations, who intend to access or remain in them for purposes other than the normal use of the hotel service, as well as persons who are not registered as users, attendees at banquets, conventions, etc., or people in the situations set out in section 2 above. As stated in Article 2.e of the Decree-Law, the accommodation units may only be accessed by those who have registered for this purpose.

This establishment may request a payment guarantee for the contracted services, in accordance with applicable regulations, and charge the corresponding amount to the user's account for any damage or imperfections that they cause to the facilities, furniture, and other elements of the establishment, due to negligence or misuse.

It may also vary the schedules of the various consumption services, usage, and enjoyment throughout the year, based on seasonality, reserving the right not to admit users outside these hours, including when the maximum authorised capacity is exceeded, or when requested within the admission limits, if the work schedule for these services could be jeopardised. The aforementioned services, their schedules, prices, and conditions of use are displayed at the entrances to the services and, in summary form, in the QR codes of the digital directories in the accommodations, which also include information about the emergency evacuation plan and free services.

This establishment has the obligation to:

- a) Ensure maximum publicity of its prices at reception and make them available to users.
- b) Inform its users, prior to entering into a contract with them, of the terms for the provision of services and their prices, and provide them with services of the highest quality, consistent with its category and under the contracted terms.
- c) Ensure that users are appropriately treated.
- d) To care for the facilities and services and maintain them in good condition.
- e) Provide complaint forms and inform of their existence.

- f) To provide users it is unable to accommodate due to overbooking with accommodations in a nearby establishment of the same or higher category, of the same group, type and speciality if applicable.
- g) Any resulting costs or surcharges will be borne by this establishment, which will reimburse users for any differences in their favour.

6. PERIODS OF OCCUPANCY OF THE ACCOMMODATION UNITS

Users of this establishment are entitled to occupy the accommodation unit from midday on the first day of the contracted period and ending at midday on the day of departure. On dates of maximum occupancy, however, the user's access to the accommodation unit may be delayed by three hours, with the unit being handed over at 3 p.m.

A different occupancy regime for the accommodation units may be agreed upon between the parties, which, if applicable, must be reflected in the admission document.

The obligation to pay for an extra day will arise if the user occupies the accommodation unit for longer than the contracted period, and if the user wishes to stay for more days than those contracted and specified in the admission document, there must always be an agreement between the parties.

7. PRICES, INVOICES AND INFORMATION

Unless expressly stated in the hotel's conditions and rates, the hotel is not responsible for the price, or for the use of tools, equipment, and other services provided outside the hotel, or for the conduct of personnel unrelated to the hotel.

Guests have access to a digital directory detailing the rates, prices, and conditions of the various types of accommodations, catering services, bars, congress events, banquets, laundry, safety deposit box rentals, deposits for the use of pool towels, and supplementary services provided by the hotel itself and by third party people or entities.

Billing for the accommodation rates shall be calculated per day and according to the number of overnight stays. This must be paid in full on arrival at the establishment.

The minimum accommodation charge is the cost of a single day and night stay, which is understood to end at midday on the day following the check-in date.

The authorised credit per room in the hotel is €1,200 in low season and €2,000 in high season. If during the stay the client exceeds this amount, he/she must go to reception to pay this amount.

Even if payment has been agreed upon in advance, the establishment may at any time require users to pay for services rendered outside the accommodation, upon presentation of the invoice and its receipts.

Any legal or natural persons who independently provide supplementary services on the premises of this hotel are responsible for their employees and their conduct, as well as their operation, maintenance, pricing, and anything else related to their own services. The owner of each of these dependencies shall be clearly identified.

There will also be a digital directory with pricing information for the most common hotel services in the accommodation units.

Invoices shall only be issued for accommodations and services contracted directly by users.

8. OTHER GENERAL RULES

1. The use of a double room by two people that has been booked as a single will not be permitted. The rate fixed for double use shall be paid in this case.
2. Room cleaning hours are from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm.
3. Smoking is prohibited throughout the establishment except in designated smoking areas.
4. In the rooms, smoking is only permitted on the terrace with the door closed to prevent odours from entering the room.
5. If we have to block a room due to the smell of tobacco, we will inform the guest that he or she will be charged for two nights.
6. It is prohibited to bring food or beverages into the hotel establishment for consumption on the premises.
7. Pets are not permitted without prior booking and payment of the corresponding fee (€25 per dog/day), with a maximum of 1 dog per room and a weight of less than 5kg, with the exceptions provided for by law. In addition, they must be confined to a specific area of the terrace and always be kept on a leash.
8. It is forbidden to hang towels or other garments on the balcony railings of the rooms' terraces. Please make use of the clothes line provided on the terrace.
9. There are complementary services operated by another person than the owner of the hotel establishment, such as the commercial premises located on the promenade adjacent to the property, such as: Amorino Gelato, Salotto and Luini Restaurant.
10. For those services of the establishment that are intended for both guests and the general public, people are prevented from accessing and/or remaining in the areas in question in the following cases:
 - a) When the number of users inside a facility, enclosure, or establishment has reached the maximum permitted.
 - b) When the establishment's closing time has passed.
 - c) When under the minimum age for entry, which is 16 years old, and not accompanied by an adult or legal guardian.
 - d) When a person attempting to enter or already inside the establishment displays violent attitudes, particularly if he/she behaves in an aggressive manner or provokes disturbances.
 - e) When attendees wear apparel or symbols that incite violence, racism, or xenophobia.
 - f) When the person attempting to enter causes hazardous situations or annoyance to other attendees or does not meet hygiene conditions. In particular, those who are under the influence of drugs, narcotics, or psychotropic substances, or who exhibit signs of having used them, as well as those whose behaviour indicates they are intoxicated, shall be denied entry or, as appropriate, prohibited from remaining in the establishment.

In each of these instances, the hotel may request assistance from the appropriate police officers.

However, in the aforementioned instances, the person in question is under the obligation to pay any expenses incurred up to the time of the ban on access to, or remaining in the establishment.

USE AND ENJOYMENT OF FACILITIES, EQUIPMENT AND SERVICES

RECEPTION

The required formalities for admission to the establishment will be completed at the reception desk. Together with the reception staff and, where applicable, the concierge/guests services staff, the Manager is responsible for all internal matters of the hotel and for providing users with information and advice.
